UPSC & MPSC COACHING

class matters...!!!

ABOUT US

Synergy Study Point located in Pune, Maharashtra has played important role in guiding students for preparing UPSC and MPSC examinations.

The Institute was founded by Mr. Atul Lande, Mr. Bipin Ahire, IPS and Mr. Amol Yadwadkar in the year 2006. Since then Mr. Amit Mankawade, Mr. Sujeet Rukari, Mrs. Swapna Jarag and Mr. Ketankumar Patil have joined as the pillars of the institute.

OUR STRENGTH

The teaching faculty of the Institute has been drawn from highly qualified and experienced teachers, majority of whom had also first hand experience of the examination.

Faculties in Synergy are full time associated with Synergy and readily available to solve the doubts.

Batch strength in Synergy is about 100 students in one batch. This helps us to give more attention to students.

We focus on 4 dimensional preparation which includes Syllabus coverage, Current Events linking, Analysis and Answer writing practice; moulding students for the demand of UPSC and MPSC Civil Service Exam.

Our Advisory Board: Advisory Board of the institute (includes Amol Khirnar IRS, Nilkanth Shelke IRS, Bipin Ahire IPS, Vijay Pingle IAS, Santosh Chalke IPS) continuously fine-tunes the approach and students orientation.

These marks will not be counted in final analysis but the papers on Essay, General Studies and Optional Subject of only such candidates will be taken cognizance who attain 25% marks in Indian Language and 25% marks in English as minimum qualifying standards in these qualifying papers.

Marks obtained by the candidates for all papers mentioned in above table will be counted for merit ranking. However, the Commission will have the discretion to fix qualifying marks in any or all papers of the examination.

Candidates will have the option to answer all the question papers, except the Qualifying Language papers Paper-A and Paper-B, in any of the languages included in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution of India or in English. Candidates exercising the option to answer Papers in any one of the languages may give English version within brackets of only the description of the technical terms, if any, in addition to the version in the language opted by them. Candidates should note that if they misuse the above rule, a deduction will be made from the total marks.

- The main Examination is intended to assess the overall intellectual traits and depth of understanding of candidates rather than merely the range of their information and memory.
- The mains questions are such as to test a candidate's general awareness of a variety of subjects, which will have relevance for a career in Civil Services.
- The questions are likely to test the candidate's basic understanding of all relevant issues, and ability to analyze, and take a view on conflicting socio- economic goals, objectives and demands.
- The candidates must give relevant, meaningful and succinct answers.

- If a candidate's handwriting is not easily legible, a deduction is made on this account from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.
- Marks are not allotted for mere superficial knowledge
- Credit is given for orderly, effective and exact expression combined with due economy of words in all subjects of the examination.
- The scope of the syllabus for optional subject papers for the examination is broadly of the honours degree level i.e. a level higher than the bachelors' degree and lower than the masters' degree. In the case of Engineering, Medical Science and law, the level corresponds to the bachelors' degree.
- The question papers for the examination are of conventional (essay/descriptive) type.
- Each paper is of three hours duration.

Syllabi of the papers included in the scheme of Civil Services (Main) Examination are given as follows:-

PERSONALITY TEST (INTERVIEW)

- The candidate is interviewed by a Board who has before them a record of his/her career. He/she is asked questions on matters of general interest. The objective of the interview is to assess the personal suitability of the candidate for a career in public service by a Board of competent and unbiased observers. The test is intended to judge the mental caliber of a candidate. In broad terms this is really an assessment of not only his/her intellectual qualities but also social traits and his/her interest in current affairs. Some of the qualities that are judged are mental alertness, critical powers of assimilation, clear and logical exposition, balance of judgment, variety and depth of interest, ability for social cohesion and leadership, intellectual and moral integrity.
- The technique of the interview is not that of a strict cross-examination but of a natural, though directed and purposive conversation which is intended to reveal the mental qualities of the candidate.
- The interview test is not intended to be a test either of the specialized or general knowledge of the candidates which has been already tested through their written papers. Candidates are expected to have taken an intelligent interest not only in their special subjects of academic study but also in the events which are happening around them both within and outside their own state or country as well as in modern currents of thought and in new discoveries which should rouse the curiosity of well educated youth.
